Tuesday 12 September: 14:30-15:30

Session 13

New psychoactive substances: where has their impact been the greatest Chair: Dr Helen Walters, Consultant Adviser, Public Health Research, National Institute of Health Research

USE OF SPIKE AMONG HOMELESS POPULATIONS: MANCHESTER'S EXPERIENCE
David Regan
Director of Public Health, Manchester City Council and Director of Population Health and Wellbeing, Manchester Health and Care Commissioning

SYNTHETIC CANNABINOIDS IN PRISON: HARMS AND RESPONSES
Dr George Ryan
Senior Clinical Advisor to Criminal Justice Team, Public Health England

NEW PSYCHOACTIVE SUBSTANCES, RESPONDING TO THE CHALLENGE
Dr Owen Bowden-Jones
Consultant in Addiction Psychiatry and Honorary Clinical Senior Lecturer, Faculty of Medicine, Imperial College London

Session 14

Antimicrobial resistance: a global threat with a local impact
Chair: Linda Dempster, Head of Infection Prevention and Control, NHS Improvement

WORKING TOGETHER TO REDUCE INFECTIONS AND ANTIMICROBIAL RESISTANCE
Professor Paul Cosford
Director for Health Protection and Medical Director, Public Health England

THE GRAM-NEGATIVE MENACE
Russell Hope, Sarah Gerver, Alex Bhattacharya, Alan Johnson
Public Health England
Presenting author: Russell Hope, Head of Bacteraemia and CDI Surveillance Section, Public Health England

ANTIBIOTIC USE IN ENGLISH PRIMARY CARE AND POTENTIAL FOR REDUCING ANTIBIOTIC PRESCRIBING
Timo Smieszek, Koen Pouwels, David Smith, Christiana Dolki, Julie Robotham
Public Health England
Presenting author: Timo Smieszek, Senior Mathematical Modeler, Public Health England

ENHANCING OUR RESPONSE TO ANTIMICROBIAL RESISTANCE THROUGH BEHAVIOURAL SCIENCE
Dr Tim Chadborn
Head of Behavioural Insights and Evaluation, Public Health England